*No reduction in price if you do not wish to take The Overland. Our rail journeys go through remote Australian regions, which sometimes results in severe weather events, flash flooding, bushfires and remote, location medical evacuations. Therefore it is mandatory to purchase travel insurance, which can be purchased with Aussie Trains to protect you in unforeseen circumstance. Your Rail Journey could be cancelled under one of the following three circumstances:(1) A cancellation arising from your actions, through no fault of JBRE - see 'Guest Cancellations' below (2) A cancellation by JBRE arising from external consequences that make our performance of the agreement impossible (for example a Force Majeure event, or the actions of a third party e.g new government regulations) - (3) Any other cancellation by JBRE - see 'JBRE Cancellations'. In the event of a Force Majeure Cancellation, JBRE will provide you with a credit note of an amount equal to the monies paid to JBRE under the booking. The credit note can be applied to the cost of a future Rail Journey or Holiday Package with us. Time limits and other criteria and conditions may apply. For all fare types, in the event of a JBRE Cancellation, JBRE will provide you with the option to receive one of the following (1) an alternate rail service of the same value at a later date; (2) No financial refund. Full payment is required within 7 days after booking and is 100% non-refundable. Payment via direct deposit, cash & cheque, no credit cards. If not sold to 100% capacity the departure does not go ahead and you will receive 100% credit towards your next booking. There will be no financial refund if the trip does not go ahead only 100%, travel credit issued. A Service Disruption is a full or partial cancellation of your Rail Journey after your Rail Journey has commenced. In the event of a Service Disruption, JBRE will, subject to its obligations under the Australian Consumer Law, use reasonable endeavours to re-route you to the next destination by any form of transport at JBRE's cost. No refunds are payable for Service Disruptions. We may cancel or modify OTEs due to inclement weather, train scheduling or other circumstances. There are no refunds for any such cancellations or modifications. In order to provide you with the goods and services that are included in your Rail Journey or Holiday Package, we may use third party providers. You agree that we may pass on to you any costs, fees or terms that they apply to us under our agreement with them. All discounts and savings have been applied to the prices. Not available with any other offers. 100% cancellation fees apply. The fare is non-transferable and non-refundable. No Qantas frequent flyer points are able to be earned or used. For full terms & conditions visit www.journeybeyondrail.com.au. Price effective as of 15 July 2022. Holiday Corner T/A Aussie Trains. License No.30370.
